

How to use keyboard shortcuts

You can use shortcuts in your Twitter app through a bluetooth keyboard connected to your iPhone or iPad. Additionally, you can use the Smart Keyboard or other compatible keyboards for your iPad. Tip: on an iPad, hold down the command key to see the full list of available keyboard shortcuts.

Navigation

- cmd-1 = home (press again to scroll to top)
- cmd-2 = Explore tab (press again to scroll to top)
- cmd-3 = Notifications tab (press again to scroll to top)
- cmd-4 = Direct Messages
- cmd-` = navigation menu
- space = page down
- shift-space = page up
- ⬆ = scroll page up
- ⬇ = scroll page down
- cmd- = back
- cmd- = go to top
- cmd-shift-] = next sub tab
- cmd-shift-[= previous sub tab
- cmd-F = search
- cmd-, = settings
- cmd-R = refresh
- cmd-M = enable/disable dark mode
- cmd-\ = account list
- cmd- + = increase text size
- cmd- - = decrease text size
- cmd-0 = default text size
- cmd-W = close
- esc = close

Moments and media view

-   = navigate through Moments, media viewer

Tweet detail and media view

- R = Reply
- T = Retweet
- L = Like
- cmd-U = Go to user profile

Tweet composer

- cmd-N = new Tweet
- cmd-return = send Tweet

Direct Message

- cmd-N = new Direct Message
- return = send Direct Message